Book Referral

We will travel deeper if you read one or both of the following books prior to the seminar:

1. The Power of Sound (2010 Revised Edition) by Joshua Leeds
2. Listening for Wellness by Pierre Sollier

Both books are available at Sound-Remedies.com

Schedule

We begin Friday evening at 7:30 pm, and conclude Monday afternoon at 4:30. Actual times between are subject to change. Comfortable clothes, please.

Broad overview: 3+ days about music and sound for professional and personal usage. Each day will include two hours of rhythm and song/chant. Experiential exercises, small group sessions, and delightful play space augment academic inquiry. Inspired special guests will be a delight! There will be periods for rest, food, and networking; community building is one of our goals.

Friday evening (5/23)	7:30 - 10:30 pm
Saturday (5/24)	10:00 am - 6:00 pm
Sunday (5/25)	11:00 am - 11:00 pm
Monday (5/26)	10:30 am - 4:30 pm

Springtime in Ashland

Ashland is charming, has more art per square inch than anywhere else, enjoys gorgeous climate, and spring colors are reminiscent of New England.

During your visit for SOUNDWORK, take in a play at the famous Oregon Shakespeare Festival, stroll gorgeous Lithia Park, shop shop shop, and eat eat eat. Hiking is fantastic, as well! Couldn't be sweeter...

Travel

- Driving: Ashland is 5 hours south of Portland, 6 hours north of San Francisco, and only one hour north of the breath-taking Mt. Shasta.
- Air: Medford (MFR) is the nearest airport (13 miles from Ashland).
